But Dr. Lefler's Case Looked Extremely Serious for a Time.

POOR RACE FOR VERY BIG MONEY

Frohman Had the Eclipse, Worth $10,000, at His Mercy - Steeplechase Course at Morris Park Should Lose Its Second "Liverpool."

By Francis Trevelyan.

The first of the many races for gentlenen riders that are to be run during the yesterday, but heaven forefend that it should be a fair specimen of what the entire lot will prove. Nine-tenths of the spectators left the course under the impression that Dr. Lefler, the veterinary surgeon, from the Genesee Valley, who had come down to ride Tripoli for Mr. Colt had been very seriously, if not fatally, injured. The ambulance surgeon and Dr. Hasbrouck, after a superficial examination, only a quarter of a second slower than Handpress's new record. Calculation was looked very grave, but, happily, the doctors at the Fordham Hospital, where Dr.

McCafferty, who rode Gotham, complained to the stevards that Harrison, on Brisk, had bumped both him and Powers, on Trillette, but Powers denied that such a thing had happened, and nothing was done. Kenmore Queen had a hard time to win the four and one-half furiong race for two-year-old fillies, as Lady Cooper ran most one pression that Dr. Lefler, the veterinary authority of Pennsylvania. whose collar bone was broken at g jump, fared the worse. He faced the situation with his usual courage and walked to the club house, with a crowd of Only my collar bone broken," was the way he put it. The accidents, however, left Mr. Eustis to finish all alone on Royal Scarlet, who had the race in hand when the other horses fell. Mr. Bustls rode a most workmanlike and artistic race, and Royal Scarlet, like the other umpers in the Massrs. Hitchcock's stable, showed perfection of schooling. Second "Liverpool" Dangerous. But the race was an undentable failure. The conditions called for horses that had never been first or second in any open steeplechase or hurdle race, and provided a seven-pound penalty for any horse that had started in any such race this year or the race will have served a useful purthe race will have served a useful purpose if it brings about the removal of the second "Liverpool." Placed where it is norses have to gallop down hill to it, and, catching them beat at the end of the race, it is nothing more or less than a deatherap. This has been evident for some time, but yesterday's conspicuous example emphasizes the point. Anyhow, a "Liverpool" is out of place so near home, and this is particularly dangerous. A tired horse is more likely than hot to gallop into the ditch.

horse is more likely than not to all the ditch.

Unfortunately, it looks probable that the second of the gentlemen rider races, the Amateur Cup, at a mile on the flat, to be run for on Saturday, will not be much more of a success than the Hunt Steeple-chase. From what could be learned yesterday, the chances are that the field will not, at any rate, exceed four. These and there riders are: Xmas (Mr. Louis Haight), Gotham (Mr. Eustis), Baroness (Mr. Wadsworth) and Hawarden (Mr. Hunn), the last named being a doubtful starter. Possibly some others may go, but it does not seem probable.

Poor Race for Big Money.

The rich Eclipse, worth $10,000, should have been the feature of yesterday's card. Madras Shirts, but, as events turned out, it was merely a rather insignificant part of a dull day's sport. Firearm, Uuriel, Varus, Reprisal, Klitefoot and others that would have added interest by their presence were, from sickness or other causes, absentees, and only four went to the post, Mr. Gideon scratching Ballister and remaining content to be represented by Frohman. This colt was, of course, the hottest kind of a favorite, as he was only meeting Great Bend, Prince Lee and Cherry Picker, at even weights. His weight had been sent out over algulating $3,400, including the Sanford cup in the Laureate Stakes. It was forgotten for the time being that the Eclipse land closed September 7 of has year, before the rule including the value of added plate in a stake had been passed.

Frohman had a ridiculously easy race, as no one of his opponents could make Prince
